EnviroLife® Food Grade Recycled Fiber

EnviroLife® is a FSC® certified, 100% sustainable recycled fiber that is compliant with FDA standards for use in direct food contact packaging at 100% inclusion.

Our blend of recovered hard and softwood fibers gives EnviroLife® strength and durability for packaging and board applications.

Unmatched Purity. Unlimited Potential.

Our proprietary process eliminates optical brightening agents (OBA), resulting in a fiber that contains zero fluorescence.

EnviroLife® is the ideal supply chain solution for food-serving companies seeking to minimize the environmental impact of their packaging and meet sustainability goals.

Environmental Stewardship

Compared to generic non-recycled fibers in North America, our recycled fibers have a lower environmental impact.

Water use

EnviroLife® requires 9 times less water to produce than non-recycled fiber.

Circular Economy

Every year, Sustana Fiber recycles enough paper to:

Reduce landfill space by over 1 million cubic yards

Save over 4 million trees

Bringing fiber products full circle with sustainable innovation.

At Sustana Fiber, we define success not only by the quality of our products and our ability to meet our customers' needs, but also by the effect our products and processes have on wildlife, people and the planet.

Sustana Fiber facilities process 2.2 million pounds of recycled materials every day.

2.2M

Climate change

The impact of EnviroLife® on climate change is 26 percent lower than the average non-recycled fiber.

Circular Economy

Sustana Fiber is an industry leader in sustainability solutions for printing papers, tissue products, and food service packaging and containers.

We know that transparency is crucial to the brand-owners that use our products—that's why we conducted an LCA.

We believe in being good stewards of the valuable resources that benefit people, the environment, and business to drive the economy and create a closed-loop journey.
